RIVERSIDE INSTITUTE FOR SOLDIERS' AND SAILORS' ORPHANS.—This institution, located at Riverside, Burlington county, New Jersey, is founded for the purpose of gratuitously educating the sons of deceased soldiers and seamen of the United States, and was incorporated on the Sth of April last. In order to raise funds for the maintenance of the Institution, the Washington Library Company, chartered by the State of Penusylvania, organized liself and perfected a plan which has received the endorsement of the highest legal authority of this State and New Jersey. Their plan of action is to sell osrtificates of membership at $1 each. Five series of fine steel plate engravings have been issued, one of which will be given to every subscriber, in addition to a present which is also ensured (there being no exceptions), and which will be awarded on the 25th day of September next, at the Academy of Music or at the Institute.

The presents to be awarded consist of $40,000. RIVERSIDE INSTITUTE FOR SOLDIERS' AND next, at the Academy of Music or at the Institute.

The presents to he awarded consist of $40,000, $20,000, $10,000, $50000, and two of $2500, all in greenbacks, together with real estate, horses, planes, melodeous, sewing machines, gold watches, camel's hair, lace, and cashmere shawls, dress putterns, sliver ware, and an endless variety of other goods of great value. Every purchaser will, in addition to the engraving which he receives, also receive some one of the presents announced for distribution. All moneys received will be at once paid over to George A. Cooke & Co., bankers, No. 33 South Third street, who have been induced to act as receivers, from the simple fact that it has been fully shown to their satisfaction that the whole net proceeds are to be devoted to the Riverside net proceeds are to be devoted to the Riverside Institute and the hundreds of orphans who are now knocking at its doors for admission, and who are denied this blessing on account of a want of funds. This reason has also in used the Commissioner of Internal Revenus to exempt the affair from all tax of any kind whatever.

The object is a noble one, and the present plan was only adopted after mature deliberation and consultation with the highest legal authority. In no other way can the Company raise so large a sum of money as will be required. And when a fair equivalent for the same is offered, it is to be hoped that this institution will soon be in working order. Fuller particulars of the plan will be announced in our savertising columns. our advertising columns.

THE HORTICULTURAL BAZAAR .- There was a The Horricultural Bazaar.—There was a large and very fashionable attendance at the new Hortlcultural Hail last evening. It was crowded from an early hour until after 10, the extra attraction being the rose and strawberry display. Of roses and other flowers there was a sufficient number to give the Hail somewhat the appearance of a floricultural establishment, but not enough to make it a marked feature.

Of strawberries, the display, in consequence of the backwardness of the season, was also of the backwardness of the season, was also slim. Mr. Parry exhibits six varieties, the French, lowa, Downer, Baltimore Scarlet, May Queen, and New Jersey Scarlet. Mr. Crowell, of Hammonton, Wilson's Albanyand Brooklyn Scarlet. The main feature of interest in this department were the new seadilings the Philis Scarlet. The main feature of interest in this department were the new seedlings, the Philadelphia, grown by A. L. Felton, of this city, and the Stinger seedling, exhibited by C. Harmar, The former of these berries is of a fine color and size, remarkably prolific, very firm-lieshed and fine flavored, and, withal, one of the earliest berries known. This is shown by the fact, that although grown in the open air on the stiff.cold soil of Fennsylvania, it ripens as early as the earliest varieties grown in New Jersey. Stinger's seedling is a large fine-looking berry, ripening later in the season, and giving promise of becoming popular. Among the other fruits were two large dishes of see ling strawberries, numbering some one hundred and fifty varieties, from the National Botanicai Gardens at Washington. Among them were berries of enor-Ington. Among them were berries of enormous size, and very fine appearance. A placard placed on the desk announced that these seedings were all grown from seed planted in July, 1000 1866. Such wonderful results seemed almost incredible, and naturally threw a shade of doubt over the statement. But as it is vouched for by Mr. Saunders, the Superintendent, who exhibits them, it is only fair to presume that, having all desired facilities, coupled with long experience and skill, the seedlings were really experience and skill, the seedings were really produced or grown within the time named, eleven months.

A bunch of asparagus, containing sixteen stalks, is on exhibition, the weight of which is six and abaif pounds. One such stalk would make a meal for an ordinary asparagus eater. There will doubtless be a larger variety of Strawberries on exhibition to-night.

THE FIRST CAR .- All of us who have been unfortunate enough to have been detained a any considerable distance from home after mid-night, can well remember the feelings of minnight, can well remember the reelings of into-gled disgust and anger, when on inquiring, we find that the last car has just passed a few minutes before. And as we gaze up and down the street, as the case may be, and see the lights of that car gradually growing smaller and dimmer in the distance, we seel, perhaps, as Cortez's men did when the ships were burnt and they had no chance to go back, and had to foot it ahead. By the way, these last cars are a peculiar institution. The stiff, puritanical, quakerish etiquetic does not rule in its free quarters. There are applied to the stiff of the stiff of the stiff. ters. There are gentlemen in all stages, often-times from desperately sober to fully tight. There, too, the smoker enjoys his weed, and is There, too, the smoker enjoys his weed, and is fearless of the command to put it out of the window. Free and easy being almost always "male cars," fun, and jest, and good nature generally abound.

But enough of the pleasures and miseries of the last car; let us turn to the first that makes its appearance in the morning. Now it being out late enough to miss or catch the last car implies a repreach, one would think that being too early to catch the first one would be being too early to eatch the first one would be the opposite. It is not often that we have experienced a feeling of ho; e and expectation in looking for the first of these servants of the public to make its appearance. The other morning, however, we were coming in town at a very early hour, and long before the different lines commenced running. Long and anxious waiting brought its reward, and just a few squares from the starting place we obtained footing upon the rear platform. Inside were work men and isborers, platform. Inside were workmen and laborers, black and white, and some young women of Celtic origin. The car is densely crowded Celtic origin. The car is densely crowded within and without yet at almost every corner within and without yet at almost every corner are groups of anxious men and women, anxious to avail themselves of the accommodation. The conductor yells out, "Going up? plenty of room!" "Where is it?" sing out two or three voices, "On the roof," says another. And thus we drive along, with many a jest and sly stroke of wit. As is always the case, one or more badtempered persons get in, and, as a matter of course, become the butts of all the sly remarks and good-humored hits of the assembled company.

A PLEASANT TRIP DOWN THE RIVER.—Yesterday an excursion in the shape of a pleasant trip down the Delawars on the United States revenue cutter W. H. Seward, under command of Captain Raiston, proved a pleasurable affair. The excursionists, all well known and prominent cittz hs, included the Hon, William D. Kelley, Collector J. S. Cake, General DeWitt Clinton Baxter, and Captain James Lewis. Inspector Heyl, Agent of the Treasury Department, was one of the party, and is to make surveys of the river, etc., below Fort Delaware The gentlemen attending visited the A PLEASANT TRIP DOWN THE RIVER .- Yes Delaware The gentlemen attending visited the new site of the Navy Yard, and all such other places as will come into note upon the removal of the present yard to League Island.

A MEETING RESULTS UNSATISFACTORILY .- Two A Meeting Results Unsatisfactority.—Two men, between whom a most intense animosity existed, met by accident in the same saloon, near the Noble street wharf, and got drunk precisely at the same time. A fight soon ensued, but was not conducted on the scientific principles enjoined by the "ring" Nevertheless, they managed to batter each other to their individual defacement, until William Clawson, one of the belligerent spirits got the best of it, and was consequently arrested. Alderman Toland held him in $800 bail to answer at Court.

THE SALE OF PAINTINGS, Crystal Medallions, THE SALE OF PAINTINGS, Crystal Medallions, etc., from the American Art Gallery, was commenced last evening at Scoti's Gallery, No. 1920 Chesnut street. Mr. John Lynch being sworn, said he knew Lane and Budd, but had just seen them on life occasion of mreting them at the latter's office: saw Mr. Lane at Mr. Trunk's place on the morning referred to: Mr. Lane went into Mr. Trunk's place, and afterwards Mr. Kelly, Mr. Lane, and witness had a conversation; he told Kelly that there was nothing wrons about Trunk's place. Mr. Kelly said that they ought not to do any thing about the case, as Mr. Trunk was a poor min: Mr. Lane said he would have to repeat it to the Collector of the District; he asked Mr. Lane afterwards what comid be done in the case, he replied that it was a very ticklish case, at if the case was compromised without reporting he would have to go down and see the Collector, and see what he said about it: Mr. Lane has gone about if teen minutes, and Mr. Kelly went to witness and spice of the appointment at Budd's office; he went with Kelley, who asked min how much money he had; said $20, was it enough? Mr. Kelly introduced Mr. Trunk as Mr. Johnson at first, but after some conversation, Mr. Badd drew up a noic, payable on demand, for $30, and gave it to witness to sign, It was drawn up as for a law fee; winess siened it: and Kelly endorsed it: Mr. Kelly then asked witness to pay him the $20, he said he could not give such an order; witness asked for a receipt for the $20, he said he could not give such an order; witness asked for a receipt for the $20, he said he could not give such an order; witness asked for a receipt for the $20, he said he could not give such an order; witness asked for a receipt for the $20, he said he could not on the payable on authority that would warrant a holding of the place, as the still was not used; witness said he never intended o pay the octe when he gave it.

The officer making the arrest said that Mr. Lane's and Mr. Budd's offices were in the same building.

Mr. J. H. Diehl, Collector of Second District, was sworn—He had seen Mr. Lane, and know Mr. Budd

A HAT THEF. - A young man named Charles Marsh was arrested at a late hour last right, while wheeling a barrow full of new hats, on Second street, near Race. Officer Debatth, of the Fourth District, took him in custody. An examination before Alderman Godbou this morning, disclosed the fact that Marsh was in the employ of Schneider & Co, hat meant to the employ of Schneider & Co, hat meant in the employ of Schneider & Co., hat manufacturers, in Pembroke place, in the vicinity of his arrest. [SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO EVENING THEBGRAPH, WASHINGTON, June 6.

Suit for False Im prisonment. Captain John J. Ryan, who was arrested in Memphis, July, 1865, supposed to be John H. Surratt, and brought to Washing ton in irons and imprisoned until November, 1865, has arrived in Washington to take steps for a suit against the Government for false i uprisonment. Sunset Cox & Co. are his counael.

The Trial of Surratt. The Government witnesses desired in the Surratt case are not all forthcoming, but the defense will insist that the case shall be commenced on Monday, or abandoned. Hon, Mr. Bingham has had several interviews with District Attorney Carrington in regard to the conduct of the prosecution, but will decline to appear as counsel on the trial. An attempt will be made to impeach the testimony of John M. Lloyd, keeper of the tavern at Surrattsville, a leading witness for the Government, on the ground that he perjured himself by solemnly swearing to the detectives who first reached his house after the assassination, that he had seen nothing of Booth.

June 5.—Dr. Swain, the President of the University, in a few appropriate remarks, called out Secretary Seward, who made a short but patriotic speech, exhorting his hearers to forget the disagreeable events of the past, and to bend all their energies to consolidate the public good. At the present time there was an eclipse passing over our constellation, and from the Southern point.

The President never was a prodigal from his father's estate. (Laughter.) The State gave him nothing, and his father was poor. He went out almost penniless, and came back with pienty, and loaded with distinction. The propelling spirit, storping at nothing where duty ealls, led him to his present position.

General Sickles, after the applause and music duty ealls, led him to his present position.

General Sickles, after the applause and music closed, was introduced, and said he had no responsibility in the enactment of measures which he, as commandant in the Carolinas, was now carrying out. It was a pleasing duty to bear testimony, in the presence of his chief, as he had eisewhere, that, in his difficult and, as be might say, ardnous duties, he had been sustained by the opinion, conntenance, and co-operation of the vast majority of the citizens of the Carolinas, and he could add, no people of whom he read and among whom he lived could bear themselves with more honor. lived could bear themselves with more honor dignity, and order than they had exhibited under the peculiar circumstances.

The Senatorial excursion.

NEAR FORT KEARNBY, ON THE UNION PACIFIC RAILBOAD, MAIN STEM, June 5.—Senator Wade's party left the camp, at the west of the track, this morning, for Omaha.

Generals Sherman and Augur are going to Julesburg. General Sherman has finally concluded to concentrate his entire force on the stage, telegraph, and railroad lines to Denver, Ulah, and Moniana. At present the Denver and California stage line leaves the railroad and the forks of the line leaves the railroad and the forks of the Platte, to follow, on the south side, up the South Platte river to Julesburg. He will notify the ranchemen along this part of the route that he cannot protect it from the wandering Indians, but if they will move over the river, and change the crossing of the Platte to near Julesburg, three hundred and ninety miles from Omaha, he will guarantee protection to Denver. He will do this by arming all the passengers, and when the stage is not full, make up the loads with soldiers. Wells, Fargo & Co. will, accordingly, transfer all their stock, and the trains will follow.

General Sherman is enthusiastic in advocating of the rapid construction of the Pacific Railroad, and says that the Government could taself build it and save money by it. The Senators are delighted with the country, and the road and its equipment. They will reach Omaha to-night.

A New Island in the Pacific-A Chance for More Territory.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 6.—It is stated that a new island has been discovered in the North Profic, 150 degrees west longitude, 40 degrees 20 minutes north latitude, It is twenty miles long, and exactly in the track of vessels to this port from China and Japan.

On her late return vogage the steamer Colorado passed near the locality, but fogs and m sty weather prevail in that section of the Pacific. this supposed that many missing vessels have been wrecked there. It is considered of sufficient importance to justify the Government in despatching a vessel thither. A local company has been organized to survey the island, and vessels will start this week to examine and take possession. The schooner Caroline Wills has returned

The schoorer Caroline Wills has returned from an unsuccessful cruising expedition for the barque Lasselle, which was last at Wake Island, March, 1866. The schooner Caroline Wills visited Sibella Island, and discovered the wreck of the ship Canton, which was reported as having left Sitka, in 1816, and was never heard of. Portions of the wreck were in perfect preservation. A shield, with the arms of the East India Company and England fastened thereon, was brought back.

Conservative Meeting at Atlanta, Ga. AUGUSTA. Ga., June 5.—A meeting of citizens of Fulton and De Kalb counties was held at Atlanta, to form a conservative party. A pre-amble and resolutions were adopted denounc-ting the Sherman bill as infamons, and preferring the military rule to organizing under its provisions, provisions,

The press of that city have no sympathy with the movement, and pronounce it ill-timed and injudicious. The feeling throughout Georgia is to submit and organize under the Military bill. The people are sick and tired of uncertainty and agitation, and will conform in good faith to the requirements of Congress. The opposition will be faconsiderable, as agreat inspority of the people are in favor of voting for a convention.

Doings 'AT THE CENTRAL STATION .- Charles March, who was arrested last evening with a number of nats in his possession, the particu-lars of which transaction will be found in another place, was before Alderman Beit-ler this afternoon, and was held in $1500 bail to answer at Court,

THE NORRISTOWN FAIR.

SPECIAL DESPATCH TO EVENING TELEGRAPH.] NORRISTOWN, Pa., June 6.—Notwithstanding the heat, the attendance at the regular Horse Fair of the Eastern Pennsylvania Agricultural Society, which opened yesterday in this place, was very large. Some fine blooded stock was on the track, and considerable interest was excited in races against time. The display of agricultural implements was also very good. In conjunction with the Agricultural Society, the patriotic ladies of Montgomery county opened a fair and refrashment saloou, the first for the sale of useful and fancy articles, the second for the refreshment of the inner man. All departments of the Fair come in for a suare of admiration, and to the ladies in attendance are certainly due the thanks of the visitors. They were ubiquitous, entertaining, and beautiful.

pesterday. LEGAL INTELLIGENCE.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT—Judge Cadwalader.—The United States vs. 20 carrels of walsky, Michael Agnew, claimant. Before reported. Verdict for the United States.

The United States vs. 6 barre's of whisky, Edward Maginnis, claimant. An information of the seizure of goods claimed to have been forfeited to the Government by a violation of the revenue law. The testimony on the part of the United States was, that the claimant's saloon, No. 1212 S. Fifth street was visited by a revenue officer last February, and upon search a number of barrels of whisky were found not branded. Consequently they were soized.

The complainant alleged, and produced testimony to prove, that he had given an inspector due notice of his possession of the whisky, and had requested him to stamp the barrels. The inspector did not do so then, for some reason not known to him (the claimant) and several days after this another inspector went there, found the barrels unstamped, and sized them. On trial.

COURT OF QUARTER SESSIONS—Judge Ludlow
—T B Dwight, Assistant Divirist Autorney.—In the case of the Commonwealth vs. William Reliey, charged with the commission of an outrage upon Lizzie Cavanaugh, before reported, the jury returned a gentlet of earlier.

Lizzie Cavanaugh, before reported, the jury returned a verdict of gulity.

Charles Licyd was then put upon trial upon the same charge, it being alleged that he acted in connection with Reliev. The facts in evidence were that he was one of the young men who were concealed in the woods near Gray's lane, on the Baltimore turnpike, and who appeared at a signat given by Reliev, and added in outraging this woman.

The defense was ingeniously argued by Mr. Kneass, principally upon the testimony produced by the Commonwealth. But the argument, although perfectly proper in and necessary to such a case, was in subject-matter of a nature that would not admit of publication. lication.

The Judge charged the jury ably and at considerable length, for it was a case that required careful consideration, and the jury retired.

After a short absence the jury returned a verdict of guilty, with a recommendation to the mercy of the Court.

guilty, with a recommendation to the mercy of the Court.

A little boy, seven years old, named Willie Butier, was brought before the Court upon a charge of malicious mishief, in shooting an arrow through a pane of glass. The District Attorney declined to prosecute the case, the little fellow declaring his innocence, and, with the approbation of the Court, proposed to allow the child to go home upon ball being entered for his good behaviour.

His Honor asked the prosecutor if he wished him to send the boy to prison, and he auswered that he did not. The Judge said he wooldn't do so it it had been so desired, and told the prosecutor that he would cause the boy's father to enter bail for his good behavior, and thus secure him from further annivage.

Dennis McClerum a how should to the prosecutor.

butter was missed from the market, and on the 28th of May last this boy was arrested upon suspicion. He told the officer who arrested him that another boy had stolen the butter and gave him one pound. There was no proof that this boy did steal the butter, nor was there evidence of its ownership, and hence the verdict of acquittal.

Francis Reever and George Lettmer, both colored, were charged with burglary. On the night of the 23th of March last, the store of Mary McCuily, at Hurst and Mary streets, was entered and, a quantity of butter, and meat, and three boxes of candles, were taken. Latimer was arrested on the following morning, and part of the stolen goods were found in his posession.

Reeves was arrested several days afterwarfs with some of the stolen goods in his possession, and he also confessed that he had committed the burglary.

Reeves was found guilty of burglary and Latimer guilty of receiving stolen goods knowing them to have been stolen.

Leonard Yeagle was convicted of a charge of assault and battery upon his wife, Margaret Yeagle.
